UTILITY POLICY DEVIATION REQUEST SUMMARY

Prepared by: Paul Erickson, Engineering Technician

Permit # PW21-0131

Date: June 23, 2022

Location: Driver Rd, M.P. 0.086 – 0.172    Road Number: 15170    Road Class: Local access    ADT: 80 (2001)

Location: Caddy St, M.P. 0.000 – 0.032    Road Number: 15160    Road Class: Local access    ADT: 30 (2001)

Posted Speed: 25 mph    Type: BST    Year: 2001    Road Condition: 100 (2015)

Request Summary:

- This PUD water line replacement project design is requesting deviation of the Utility Policy with an open cut across Driver Rd at the intersection with Caddy St. The remaining installation follows Skagit County Utility Policy.

Utility Policy Location Requirement: Skagit County Utility Policy 5.00

All crossings of paved roadways will be jacked or bored. All crossings are to conform with minimum cover requirements. Access pits for jacking and boring shall be located a minimum of 4 feet outside the edge of traveled roadway.

Inspector Summary

- Existing conditions indicate insufficient space for boring the water main crossing due to topography and existing utilities.
- I recommend approving this deviation request on the condition that maintenance of the immediate area of pavement restoration be maintained by PUD until such time the County deems resurfacing the entire road necessary.

Attached:

- Deviation request
- Review memos
- Grant of deviation approval letter

Review Comments/Recommendation:

Engineering:

I concur with Paul's Assessment. This is a narrow road with only forty (40') of right of way and would have an impact on the adjacent property owners by using boring pits.

Permit #PW21-0131
Driver Rd milepost 0.086 – 0.172, Caddy St milepost 0.000 – 0.032

Dear Chris,

Skagit County Public Works has reviewed the June 17, 2022, request for a deviation from Skagit County Utility Policy for trenching and installing a water main crossing within a County maintained paved road.

Due to the site constraints within the road right-of-way of the above listed roads, this request for deviation to Skagit County Utility Policy at the location shown on the respective utility permit plans is hereby granted. All conditions with associated right-of-way permit will apply. With the minimal traffic and the previous surfacing lasting over 20 years, all maintenance of the immediate area of patching including joint seal shall be the responsibility of PUD. The County should not be tasked with maintaining patches from utility installations.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact myself or Paul Erickson at the number listed above.

Sincerely,

Grace Kane, P.E.
Public Works Director/County Engineer

Contractor Inadvertent Discovery Plan

I. Protocol

In the event that human remains and/or cultural or archaeological resources (see section II below) are encountered during the course of project construction, the following actions shall be taken:

- A. The contractor shall immediately stop work at and adjacent to the site of discovery, call back all haul trucks in transit containing loads of site soils, move any land-altering equipment to a reasonable distance from the discovery, completely secure the site, and contact the District.
- B. If the discovery consists of cultural or archaeological items that do not include human remains, the District shall notify the following parties:
  - 1) A professional archaeologist
  - 2) The Department of Archaeology and Historic Preservation (DAHP) (Rob Whitlam 360-890-2615)
  - 3) Swinomish Indian Tribal Community (Josephine Jefferson, 360-466-7352)
  - 4) Upper Skagit Tribe (Scott Schuyler, 360-982-8218)
  - 5) Samish Indian Nation (Jackie Ferry, 360-293-6404)
  - 6) Stillaguamish Tribe (Kerry Lyste, 360-657-3687 ext. 14)

If the discovery consists of human remains, the District shall immediately contact the following parties:

- 1) The Skagit County Sheriff's Department (non-emergency line: 360-416-1911) and the Skagit County Coroner, (Hayley L. Thompson 360-416-1996) to determine if the remains are forensic in nature.
  - 2) If the remains are not forensic in nature, the District shall contact DAHP (Rob Whitlam 360-890-2615 and Lance Wollwage 360-890-2616); who will take the lead on determining the appropriate method of treatment for the remains and will consult with the affected tribes.
- C. The District shall issue a written order to the contractor to cease all construction operations at the location of the potential cultural resources find. The order shall contain the following:

- 1) A clear description of the work to be suspended.
- 2) Any instructions regarding issuance of further orders by the contractor for material services.
- 3) Guidance as to action to be taken on the subcontracts.
- 4) Any suggestions to the contractor as to minimization of its costs.
- 5) Estimated duration of the temporary suspension.

The work suspension order shall be effective until such time as a qualified archaeologist can be called by the District to assess the significance of the potential cultural resources and make recommendations to the State Historical Preservation Officer. If the archaeologist, in consultation with the State Historic Preservation Officer, determines that the potential find is a significant cultural resource, the District shall extend the duration of the work suspension order, in writing, and the contractor shall suspend work at the location of the find.
